Goods are returnable bought any time, so long as ti ey are not solled, cash refunded or exchanges made, as you de sire. Misre resentations never allowed and the marked price our invariable price.

From our unparalleled advantages in the clothing business, of course our prices have always b en at the bottom. But we are now selling lower than ever before. Why! We have led you to expect low prices. We are selling a great many things lower than we need, simply to keep up to your expectations. We've got to sell some things ridicuously low, some we can't sell lower than usual. Whatever we can cut down without positive harm, is put down. This is the rule now.

Call it advertising if you wish. We want all the trade to be got, and may as well pay you for it as the newspapers. We are widening our reach and tightening our grip. As to losses we'll take our chances with the rest.

Of this be sure prices are not going to be higher right away. We don't propose to scare anybody into buying.

What ought to go this month we shall see does go. As yet we've simply loosened the cork on lower prices. You hear the fiz, but that's nothing to what's to come. We've got the goods and the help to sell them; expenses going just the same, whether we sell or lay idle and rust out.

We've got some Wool Suits we make $7, $8, $9, $10, that are worth a few minutes looking at at least. If you don't choose to buy, it will help your clothing education. And while you are in we'd like you to just take a squint at $12 pincheck worsted suits tumbled does not go out of his room. England-Germany Alliance. London, June 29 .- The appearance of the Berlin Post containing an article supposed to have been inspired by Prince Bismark, and strongly hinting at the desire of Germany to form an alliance with England, has excited the gravest apprehensions in all minds, both in England and all European countries. The Noveo Urmia, of St. Petersburg calls the attention of the Russian Government to this fact, and adds that the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Churchhill have always been anxious to form an Angle-German Alliance against Russia.

The new government seeems to con gratulate its fortugate stars that so soon upon the assumption of government so strong an ally as Germany comes to their aid against the common foe, Russia. Believing, therefore, that Ireland is already placated and wil remain loyal to the new government, and also, that the people anx ous for what they believe to be a necessity for the honor of England, immediate measures will be taker against Russia, and a great war is imminent The Memorial Diplomatique, a Paris jour nal reports, that Lord Salisbury will have an interview with Prince Bismarck in August in which the terms of alliance will be ad

General Grant's Condition.

Mr. McGazgon, N. Y., June 29.-Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning Dr. Douglass attended General Grant, cleaned his threat painted it with cocoine and administered th last half of the usual nightly allowance of anodine. From that time until 5 o'clock the General was quiet. At this hour Dr. Douglass was called, after which the patient re quired no attention ustil 9 o'clock he aroused. His physician when believes that General Grant slept fully nine hours last night. He says, too, that the glandular swelling outside has subsided to a minimum; the infilteration shows some dirposition to extend upward to the right cheel and less tendency to spread downward and forward on the neck. The atmosphere, which had been oppressive through the night, be-came brighter; the clouds broke away and the weather conditions, with the thermomete at 73° at 10 o'clock, are much more favorable

More Horse Thieves Lynched.

GAINSVILLE, Texas, June 29 .- Yesterday the lynching of five more horse thieves is reported in addition to the recent report that fifteen men have been hanged in two weeks Efforts to substantiate the last mentioned report resulted in positive proof of the hanging a week ago, near Healdtown of Frank Morgan, Bill Williams, and a boy named Moore. The same posse then started on a man-hunt up the Wichita rivers, and reports came back that they captured and lynched nine more, thus making a total of twelve. The latter report, however, lacks confirmation, and the modes of communication so uncertain that the facts are hard

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 28.—The cadets of the State Military Academy at Charl ston are in open revolt. It appears Cadet Schiermer, of Charleston, was recently promoted to be an officer of the cadet corps, on account of meritorious character, and as soon as the order was promulgated the entire corps, with the exception of about twenty, openly refused to obey and respect the new officer. Cadet Schiermer, it is said, is one of the most promising of the corps, and has always had a fine record as a soldier and a gentleman, commanding the respect of the officers of the academy during his entire connection with the institution. About a year ago it became his duty to re-port two cadets for a serious breach of dis-cipline, for which they were subsequently dismissed. His part in the affair made him cheaving to the large beds of his follow obnoxious to the large body of his fellow cadets, who have vigorously tabooed him. Notwithstanding this, he has been so dili-

Investigating the Hog Cholera in Nebraska. LINCOLN. NEB., June 28.-Dr. Julius Gerth, Jr., of the Bureau of Animal Industry, Washington, is here investigating the hog cholera question. A great many hogs have died in this State this spring and summer, apparently from cholera, and the investigations of Dr. Gerth confirm the suspicion figuious of Dr. Germ communities suspicion of the prevalence of the disease. Yesterday he performed an autopsy on the body of a hog supposed to have recovered from the disease, and found the animal had not recovered. A portion of the muscular tissue was examined and found to contain myriadof trichinae. It is the opinion of the doctor that this is a sample of the hogs in this sec-tion. No cases of poisoning have been reported, but may be any day.

Arrested for Abducting an Heir.

DURUOUE, Ia., June 25.-Joseph Gilroy was arrested Friday, charged with abducting his uncle and aunt's adopted child. The latter are rich and childless. About eight years ago they adopted the child in question, having taken him from the Home for the Friendless. He stood in the way of Gilrov's acquiring the old folks' property after their death. A week ago, it is charged, he took the boy away and placed him out of reach of the old folks so that they would come to regard him as lost. The Sheriff has gone in search of the boy

a Letter to Secretary Manning Declining to Resign,

And Gives His Reasons for His Actic Rumored that the President Has Not Recalled Minister Kelley

DIRECTOR OF THE MINT BURCHARD'S

WASHINGTON, June 29.-Mr. Burchard, who was suspended Saturday from the office of Director of the Mint, addressed the following letter to Secretary Manning a few days ago, declining to resign, and giving his reasons for this action:

days ago, declining to resign, and giving his reasons for this action:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19, 1886.

BIR: Respectfully acknowledging your request for my resignation communicated to me on the lith inst., I have the henor to state that after consideration I am not satisfied that duty or propriety require me, at this time, to resign my office. Were any maileasance or misconduct alleged or believed to exist. I am sure you would have done me the justice to have had an impartial examination and given a full opportunity of defense before demanding my resignation. Nor do I understand from you that the request is made for such reason, but is because you deem the relations of my office to be an intimately connected with your administration of the Treasury Department that you should have the privilege of selecting the officer to be in charge of this bureau.

Were this the case and the intention of the law, it might be proper and becoming for me to place the tenure of my service at your immediate command, or perhaps to have one so when you became the head of the department. But permit me to say such has not been my understanding of the purpose of the comage act in providing that the Director of the Mint "shall hold his office for the term of five years unless sconer removed by the President, upon reasons to be communicated by him to the Senate."

The length of the term—five years—the conditions upon which removal is authorized and the discussions and explanations preceding the passage of the act, indicate the intent that the office of Director of the Mint should not be changed on account of a change of administration or in the head of the department, for personal or political reasons. My predecessor, appointed by President Grant, although of opposite politics, continued in office under five successive Secretaries of the Treasury, until his death. As to roself, having served with acceptance oon and passed a number of bills. This ties, continued in office under five successive Secretaries of the Treasurg, until his death. As to myself, having served with acceptance for a tult term and upon reappointment and confirmation a part of another, I am conscious of no reason why an exception to the policy indicated by the law should now be made, or why I ought not to continue the performance of official duty until the expiration of my commission.

Very Respectfully,

Howario C. Benchard.

Secretary Manning, a day or two ago, called for the resignation of Mr. William Fletcher, Chief of the Loan Division. Mr. Fletcher at once complied with the request, and in person handed his letter to the Secre tary. The latter informed Mr. Fletcher that his successor had not yet been selected. So his resignation need not take effect till August 1. Mr. Fletcher then requested the Secretary to allow him to remain until Sep-tember I, on which date he will have completed twenty-one years continuous service in the department and the Secretary at once complied with the request.

A Virginia journalist now in the city, and an old friend of Minister Keiley, who has known that gentleman and his family for twenty years, pronounces the New York Heratit's Vienna correspondent's statement that Mr. Kelley's wife is a Jewess, an "atter falsehood and a lie made out of whole cloth." He says while it is true that Mrs. Kelley is of Hebrew descent, she years ag-embrace the Roman Catholic faith, and has emarke the Roman Catholic faith, and has had all her children baptized in the Catholic Church and educated an its schools. He says the President has not recalled Mr. Keiley, not is he likely to do so.

The President Saturday made the following appointments: Edward L. Hedden, to be Collector of Customs for the District of

New York: Hans C. Beattle, to be Surveyor of Customs in the District of New York: Silas W. Burt, to be Naval Officer of Cus-toms in the District of New York. Edward L. Hedden was born in New York City in 1828. From 1849 until last year he was a partner in the shipping house of Wet-ore, Cryden & Co., and for thirty-five years inducted the custom house business of the firm. He is vice president of the North River Bank, and a director in several insurance companies. He has always been a Democrat in politics. His father studied law with Alexander Hamilton, and was the representative of New York City on the occasion of the opening of the Eric Canal. T. Low, R. T. Woodward, Hubbard O. Thompson, and a large number of other New York merchants and politicians.

H. S. Beattie is a lawyer, and was an associate in the Corporation Counsel's office during Secretary Whitney's term. He has been an executive man in the County Democracy organization, is at present Deputy County Clerk of New York, and has always been a Democrat.

Colonel Silas W. Burt was formerly a naval officer, and was removed by President Arthur. He is at present chief examiner of the New York Civil Service Commission. He supported Cleveland for Governor in 1882, and was an active supporter of the Democratic candidates last fall. The term of Graham would not expire until 1887, but he is suspended in midterm because the President believes sound public policy requires a reorganization of the whole cus-toms service at the port of New York, and deemed a complete new organization essential to the proposed change of methods.

Tolliver-Martin Feud in Rowan County, Ky., Broken Out Anew. MOUNT STERLING, Ry., June 29 .- Por nearly a year there have been constant affrays between the Tollivers and the Martins of Rowan County, several persons being killed. Recently Governor Eacit sent & commissioner to the county seat, and it was supposed he amicably adjusted the feud. At the town election the other day Craig Tolliver was elected Marshal of Morehead The leader of the Martins, Cook Humphreys, Sheriff-elect, who had not given bonds and qualified, came in Friday and resigned. then armed himself and threatened tro to the sheriff who might be appointed. warrant was sworn out and put in the hands of Marshal Tolliver. Tolliver went yester-day to execute it. He was fired upon by Humphreys and dangerously wounded. The Humphreys and dangerously wounded. The Tolliver's faction gathered and are besieging the house. The Martins are gathering and a more serious light than any previous one is feared. Troops will be called for. Last night Mrs. Martin came out of the house and was begging the guards to let Humphreys escape, when Humphreys and Rayburn, another of the faction, made a rush to escape. Mrs. Martin select the gun of the guard, but another guard fired killing Rayburn. Humphreys is still at large.

Rayburn. Humphreys is still at large. Severe Storm at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, June 29. - The heaviest rain storm with which the city has been visited since the memorable storm of July 27, 1868, occurred early yesterday morning. The rain began to fall about two o'clock, At three o'clock it had developed into a ver-Stable deluge and during the next hour and a half four inches and a half of rain fell. The various small streams in and about the city, notably Jones Falls, Chatsworth Run and Hartford Run, became rushing torrents, and the dwelling houses and other buildings along their banks were mundated. Jones Falls, the dirty, sluggish stream which runs through the heart of the city was swollen to an immense height and overflowed its banks pouring great volumes of water into the lower part of Harrison, Holiday and other streets adjacent, and fleeding to the extent of five feet and over. I were brought into use by the people and police in traversing those streets to investi-gate the damage. On Harrison Street the losses by the flooding of cellars, destroying the goods stored therein will argregate $12,000. A little stream in Snake Hollow, on the western suburbs, became a river of 200 yards wide and carried away thirty hogs from the stock yards. The damage caused by the flooding of cellars, washing out of walls, etc., throughout the city will aggre wans, etc., throughout the city will aggre-gate $50,000. There was no loss of life. A section of the Western Maryland Itailroad, five rules out of the city, was swept away, delaying trains six biours. The steeple of the Methodist Church at Westminster was struck by lightning and slightly damaged.

A Brutal Act. Sr. Louis, June 20. -At the village of Brooklyn, Ill., about a mile south of Venice and opposite the northern portion of St. Louis, Willard A. Young, a river man, lives with his wife and child on a raft on the river. Friday night he was awakened by a noise and springing out of bed two men seized and overpowered him. They then gagged him and tied him to the bed. Next they proceeded to appropriate everything of value they could lay their hands on. After ransacking the room and not finding a large sum of money, which they had expected they would, they obliged Young at the of a rifle to tell where the wallet, containing $125, all the money he possessed, was hidden. After seenring the approached the bed where Young's wife lay and, tearing her babe from her arms, committed a brutal assault upon her, in full sight of her husband. Five hundred dollars reward is offered for the brutes.

The Sixth Victim of Lynch Law for a Mur-

Davis, of this (Anderson) county, Saturday received word from a small town called Bells, in Gravson County, that John Martin, one of the two escaped necroes implicated in the outrage and murder of Mrs. Hazell, at Elkhart, this city, Saturday night week was taken out of the calaboose of Bells Friday night and lynched. This makes six victims of Judge Lynch for the murder of Mrs. Hazell. Martin left Elkhart the night of the murder and awakened suspicion by inquiring about the murder on his arrival at Bells. A description of Martin was forwarded to Eikhart, and it tallied exactly with the appearance of the man wanted. On receipt of the description the mob determined to hang him. They broke into the calaboose that night, took him a short distance and hanged him.

Earl Spencer Gives a Farewell Levee in Dublin Castle on His Departure from Ireland.

The Fourth of July to be Celebrated at Bingen on the Rhine-Cholera Statistics in Spain-Rebellion in Chinese Turkestan.

SPENCER'S DEPARTURE. DUBLIN, June 29.-Earl Spencer's fare well levee was attended Saturday afternoon by about one thousand guests. His official departure passed off well on the whole. However, just outside the castle gates the father of Joe Poole, executed for a Fenian murder during the Spencerian administration, excitedly exclaimed, as the carriage passed by: "There goes a man who murdered my son," repeating this volubly and loudly. He then commenced a hooting that was taken up by some fifty bystanders, who were led by Smith, the father of one of the Invincibles. These follewed the vice regal carriages along the whole route, continually groaning out their efforts, constantly succeeded by cheers of the Ulster men and Loyalists. Next, as the vice regal carriage passed Westerland Row Chapel, there were fresh hootings, but nothing unusual occurred to invite police interference. At Kingstown a large number were on the jetty, who gave hearty fare-wells. Countess Spencer, who has lived here altogether nine years during the Earl's two terms, cried, and Lord Spencer also seemed much affected. His successor will soon arrive and is promised a good reception from all sides, as will the new law officers, who are popular as Dubliners.

The Coke Industry. PITTSBURGH, June 29.—Sixty per cent. of the ovens controlled by the Connellsville Coke Syndicate and Producers' Association run five days during the past week. The trade is gradually increasing, and after the week's orders were filled but little coke was left in the yards. Should there be a further increase this week it is thought that ten per cent. more of the ovens will be put in blast leaving thirty per cent idle. A leading producer said that there were very good prospects for an excellent trade in coke Damage to a Sound Steamer.
